PORTERVILLE, Sept. 27 — Rick Patterson, Porterville Future Farmer, has won a fourth award of $158 in the 1961-62 arc welding competition sponsored for school shop students by the James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation of Cleveland, Ohio. This marks the first time that a Porterville student has won national honors in this category.

Rick's entry was a tractor trailer built as a shop project at Porterville Union High school under the guidance of his shop instructor, Ray Kennedy. The project was entered in the Agricultural Education division of the competition held annually for high school boys throughout the nation.

Rick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Patterson, built his project for his father's trucking business. It is used to haul a 4-wheel utility tractor.

Costs, which totaled $162.08 for material, were held down by

Editorial Comment

PERHAPS PEOPLE ARE WAKING UP

Drift in political affairs is a dangerous thing but certainly not an unusual thing — and the danger becomes greater when drift involves an emotional and highly personal situation.

Perhaps this is why welfare has become such a back-breaker for the taxpayer (about one-half of the total Tulare county budget goes for welfare in one form or another) for welfare deals with personal problems of people, and those personal problems get involved in politics and emotions, and it doesn't take long to reach the situation that we are now in where a person is accused of being against old people and of being against the halt and the lame if he so much as mentions that all is not as it should be in the area of welfare.

Current question is not whether our senior citizens will be allowed to starve in the streets, or whether our unfortunates will go unaided — in fact this has never been the problem in America.

Our welfare problem today involves how much, and to whom, and for what reasons; it involves fair treatment of the deserving and the truly unfortunate; it involves a halt to welfare chiseling, a halt to the type of prostitution that welfare has made possible, a halt to those phases of the welfare program that have turned welfare into a career for some persons.

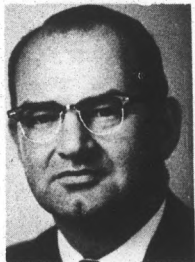

Perhaps Californians are beginning to awaken to the fact that all is not good in the field of welfare, that certain changes in philosophies and laws are badly needed. If this is the case, two organizations in Tulare county deserve a great deal of the credit — the Tulare County Citizens' Welfare Advisory committee, and the Tulare County Grand Jury.

For several years these two agencies have been plugging away at the inequities and the abuses of welfare, not with the idea of doing away with welfare, but with the idea of putting it on a fair and sane basis.

Latest move by these two groups is to schedule a seminar on welfare in Visalia, tomorrow and Saturday, at the Visalia Veterans' Memorial building. A number of California county grand juries will be represented; public officials will participate in panel discussions; the California Taxpayers' association, the Supervisors' association, and representatives of the state department of social welfare will be present.

And you and I, known as "the public" are also invited. You and I have quite a stake in this welfare program, since we pay the bill.

It just might be a good idea if you and I attended the seminar.

INVESTMENT OUTLOOK

It is always safer to talk about the past rather than the future. But none of us can properly run either our lives or our affairs by looking only backwards.

The broad decline in stock markets has understandably raised doubts and fears in the minds of many investors. Are stock prices likely to go down further? Is a downturn in business likely in months ahead?

Positive answers to these questions would be foolishly given and accepted. They are, however, questions that have been absorbing much of the thoughts of mutual fund management in recent weeks. Briefly stated, management's answer to the question (Will prices and business turn down?) would be "No . . . it is possible of course, but it is UNLIKELY."

A London economist appraises the American scene in saying, "there is nothing wrong . . . that a little confidence would not cure."

It is important that you should look upon your investment in mutual funds as an investment in the whole American economy and NOT in any single company or industry. It represents your ownership in a selected group of the best and most progressive businesses in this country.

Why is this so important? Simply because we KNOW that, although the value of this investment will fluctuate with the changing market tides, it will continue to produce income and at some future date we are CONFIDENT that it will again provide a satisfying increase in value. Why? Because its fortunes are tied to the whole broad economy of this country, a dynamic economy that has ALWAYS had its ups and downs but has never failed to recover and move forward into new high ground.

This — I believe — represents the great and basic difference between an investment in a mutual fund and any individual security — either bond or stock. And this is why your investment in mutual funds should give you a certain "peace of mind" in times like these.

YOUNG ADULT BOOKS OFFERED BY CITY LIBRARY

Margaret Leighton has written a fine biographical novel of the life of Elizabeth Bacon Custer in her new book: BRIDE OF GLORY. Libbie Bacon's marriage to the dashing Custer took her from Civil War battlefields to Army camps in many states and finally to the Omdoan ridden western plains, and tragedy. This is a compelling account of loyalty, courage, and lifetime devotion.

The Restoration era of English history is the setting for THREE AGAINST LONDON, by Rachel M. Varble. Susan Stokes, apprentice cook in the household of Samuel Pepys, finds love and danger during the early Restoration when London was swept by plague and fire. Excerpts from Pepys' Diary, in which Susan was mentioned, enrich a colorful story.

Albert B. Tibbets has selected a group of ten exceptional short stories of American fighting men in: COURAGE IN KOREA. Included are stories of our Army, Navy, and Air Force during the Korean conflict. They are striking vignettes of war, incisively written, with suspense, pathos and humor.

AT THE HEMINGWAYS, by Marcelline Hemingway Sanford is a charming, intimate, often humorous portrait of the Hemingway family during Ernest Hemingway's formative years. It is told with great skill by the one person who was closest to the author during that period. In this book one discovers, and becomes fascinated by the deep bond between Ernest and his rugged, resourceful father, whose prowess with the gun and rod the boy wished to emulate and whose independent courage as a surgeon he admired. Here, too, in many heart-warming adventures are Hemingway's musically-inclined mother; his other sisters and his young brother; and, of course, the author of this portrait, Marcelline. The story reaches its high point upon Ernest's return from Italy, a moody, battle-scarred veteran of his first war, and comes to a conclusion in the year of Dr. Hemingway's death. Through Mrs. Sanford's mature and affectionate understanding of her family she has achieved a valuable and enjoyable book.

28,000 PERSONS VISIT MUSEUM DURING SUMMER

VISALIA, Sept. 27 — At a regular meeting of the Tulare County Museum board held recently, County Parks Superintendent and Museum Curator Merle Harp stated that by actual count 28,315 people went through the museum in a four month period, from May 1 to September 1. This figure might well have run over 30,000, since, for a period of several weeks the automatic counter was inoperative.

The Emken house, situated on the museum grounds, has practically been restored to its original condition, board members were told. However, the museum is still seeking, and would welcome, additional furniture to be placed in the various rooms. These include such items as lace curtains, kerosene lamps, gaslight fixtures, dining tables, dressers, bowl and pitcher sets and such other household furnishings that are indicative of Tulare county's early history.

The LaMotte school is being restored to its original condition and such work should be completed prior to next spring. Lack of funds is hampering construction of additional museum space. However, the Museum board will be grateful for any donations that might be forthcoming from interested citizens throughout the county, so that Tulare county's Museum may continue to be improved and enlarged as additional exhibits are made available, it is stated.

ENROLLMENT HITS RECORD AT COLLEGE

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 27—The fall semester enrollment at Porterville college, which closed last week, set a new record of 470 students, Director O. H. Shires announced. Last year's figure of 463 students, the previous record, had represented an increase of nearly 18 per cent over the preceding year.

Shires said that college officials had expected the enrollment this year would about hold its own because of a decrease in students from outside the district.

Enrollment statistics showed that 391 students came from the Porterville Union High School and College district, 52 from other California school districts, 23 from out of state, and four students from foreign countries.

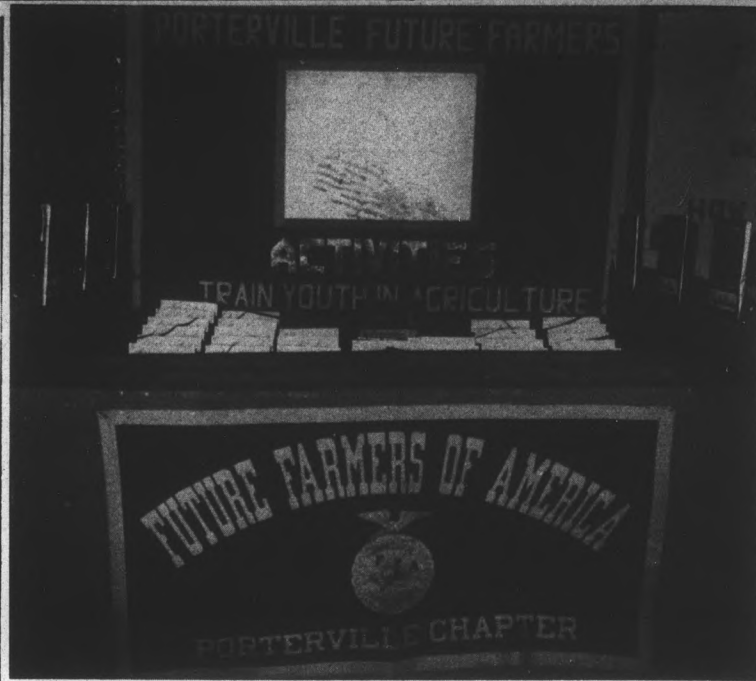

Karl Kirschner of West Germany and Kam Ahmadzadeh of Iran are returning foreign students, while Sizana Britto of Recife, Brazil, and Billy Hwang of Hong Kong are new members of the international set.

New York with 13 students leads the out-of-state contributors followed by New Jersey with four and Michigan, New Hampshire, Kentucky, Texas, Arizona and Idaho with one each.

Shires said many class sections were closed to enrollment before the final registration deadline.

During the summer, the swimmers work out in the Porterville Municipal pool, but year-around work is necessary if Porterville swimmers are to compete with swimmers from other towns that do have a year-around program.

PANTHERS AND PIRATES SHOW CLASS
AS BOTH TEAMS COME UP WITH WINS

Porterville High School's young Panthers showed signs of developing a nasty bite Friday night as they outclassed the smaller Arvin High School Bears 25-14 on the home field. The PUHS "B"s continued their unbeaten string of last year with a 19-13 win over the Arvin juniors.

The Panther offense got fine passing from Jon Sunderland, the quarterback who led the Cubs to their unbeaten season last year. Biggest find of the evening was sophomore halfback Larry Brown. The 191 pound youngster scored the Panthers' first touchdown on a 10 yard gallop off the left side. The big Sophomore showed real class carrying the mail, and as a pass receiver, and to top things off he turned in an outstanding job as a middle linebacker on defense. The Panthers get plenty of help at fullback where 210 pound Van Smith showed bone-rattling power both as a runner and a blocker. Swift Greg Boyer rounds out the startling backfield and gives the Panthers a break-away threat.

The Panther line looked quick and powerful. Tackle Bob Patton and Louis Sewell are big, strong boys who show lots of hustle. Guards Chris Wheeler and Tom DePaoli are smallish but make up for lack of size with hard work. The end spots are manned by Bill Wilcox and Troy Cox. Wilcox made, in our opinion, the finest play of the evening when he saved an Arvin touchdown by a diving tackle on a kickoff return after the Arvin back had returned the ball through the entire Panther team. Wilcox showed the kind of spirit on that play that we hope will typify this team during the coming season.

HIGH SCHOOL football - rallies, bands, action. That's the way it will be this fall, with

Saturday night the Porterville College Pirates decided to start the season over again. And they did it in a manner that made it a bit easier to forget the previous weeks blasting at the hand of COS. The Pirates man-handled the visiting Antelope Valley Marauders 26-0, a team that was supposed to "run them out of the stadium."

There were many new faces in the Pirate lineup Saturday night above photos showing the lead-off, when the Porterville high school Panthers opened last and they were minus a few prima donnas. There were a few boys who were unheard of and untried. But they came to play ball and that is just what they did.

The Pirate defense set the scene with the opening series of plays as they dominated the rah-rah Marauders with very aggressive play and completely bottled up every scoring threat they mustered.

Offensively the Pirates were given a shot in the arm by the coming of age of big Doug Wells. The former PUHS end turned Pirate halfback arrived Saturday night and he showed himself to be a hard runner who fights for the extra yard. The work horse of the Pirate backfield was John Porter, another former Panther, who always gives the same consistently fine performance. Othel Pearson came through with good passing, as the now automatic Pearson - to - Mel - Brady combination worked again and again for long yardage.

The Pirates came a long way in one week and they have shown that they can play good football. They will get a chance to prove it again this week as they open league play against Coalinga in the oil city.

A CONTINUED REPORT ON
COMMUNIST ASSOCIATIONS

Mr. Mosk, our present State Attorney-General, started his communist associations publicly in 1943 as reported last week.

In 1944 Mosk spoke at a mass meeting to celebrate the "liberation" of Poland with Joseph Makowieski, President of the American Friends for Polish Unity (under communism?). This was announced in the "People's World", August 4, 1944, in Los Angeles.

Stanley Mosk was chairman at a Tribute to Russia Day rally June 22, 1944.

Again in 1945, Mosk was appointed chairman of the American Committee for Yugoslavia Relief (cited as subversive on the 1955 Attorney-General's list.) The People's World (communist publication) reported this November 14, 1945.

On January 4, 1947, an organization called Americans for Democratic Action was formed. Stanley Mosk was an early member. The A.D.A. has demonstrated its respect for Russian democracy such as demanding bail for the eleven Communist leaders tried at Foley Square and convicted under the Smith Act; has protested a contempt conviction of Vincent Holliman as a result of a court appearance for Harry Bridges; declared that the Communist threat in this country is vastly overrated, and is presently demanding that the government restore to J. Robert Oppenheimer his access to secret information.

Our file has a gap from here to 1955, a gap however, which brother Edward Mosk filled, actively, working in such front and subversive organizations as the Progressive Citizens of America, Independent Progressive Party, the People's Educational Center (or known as People's University, People's School and People's Educational Association), the Civil Rights Congress, and the National Lawyer's Guild. The latter has been called the "foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party." Ed is also a lawyer.

Stanley Mosk was chairman in May 1955, of an American Civil Liberties Union meeting where disarmament proponent Linus Pauling attacked U.S. Atomic policy. The American Civil Liberties Union has continually championed communists and communist causes since its inception in 1920. Its first chairman was Dr. Harry F. Ward, the infamous communist who became head of the Union Theological Seminary. Other communist members have been William Z. Foster, Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, to just mention the most notorious.

On 18th January, 1955, Stanley Mosk spoke at a Los Angeles meeting at which ballad singer Ernie Lieberman was the featured entertainer. Lieberman has been cited in three

H.C.W.A. reports.

Mosk was the featured speaker at a meeting honoring A. L. Wirin in August, 1956. Wirin was then Chief Counsel for the American Civil Liberties Union, a former partner of Leo Gallagher, Los Angeles Communist lawyer, and is listed in the California Un-American Activities reports for 1943, 1947, 1948, 1949 and in the House Committee Un-American Activities for 1938, 1940, 1941, 1943. He was defense lawyer for the 15 California Communists accused of Smith Act violation.

Citizens, can you afford to ignore this sort of information? Where does the rottenness that gets such men to the top start? At the bottom of course. You are there. Why don't you clean house?

Although the electronic device will not eliminate the regular weekly auctions held at the Visalia yards, which are conducted mainly for small lot transactions, it will, nevertheless, be used in conjunction with them. So, small operators are being asked to attend the meeting also.

A question and answer period will be held following the showing of slides and presentation of explanatory information.

CHAPEL CHIMES

By Rev. N. J.
Thompson

A New York newspaper reports that some English scientists are about to do away with Bossy as a producer of milk. These scientific gentlemen claim to have found a way to manufacture milk without Bossy. How? Well, they mash pea pods, the outer leaves of cabbage, and other relatively worthless greens, and stir in some water. The mixture is then heated, which precipitates proteins. To this mixture is added vitamins, minerals, vegetable fats, and carbohydrates. The resultant product is synthetic milk.

Well, the horse has disappeared from the farm — and here goes the cow! Change after change is re-shaping our lives. Soon we'll be flying to Mars for dinner, and sipping artificial milk made from cabbage leaves and corn stalks.

Our jet age, with its changes, inventions, and speed, has shrunk the world. Now all men — yellow, black, brown, red, and white — are neighbors. How we treat our neighbors is important. How they treat us is important, too.

When all men learn to live by the Golden Rule, what a wonderful world this will be! Honest men today are recognizing more and more the simplicity and grandeur of the teachings of Jesus Christ.

Perhaps the most sublime is, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" (Matthew 22:37-39).

Of course we can get along without horses and cows. But we can't get along without people. So we must get along WITH them. It helps to put into daily practice the commandment that Jesus Christ called the greatest of all.
